The purpose of the TOOELE County Livestock Show is to promote and encourage FFA and 4-H Club members of this county in the feeding, production, and improvement of livestock.

The object of the show is to furnish the exhibitor a medium through which they may display their best animals and in a practical way learn some of the lessons of competition, cooperation, showmanship, and market demands, thus culminating in a better appreciation of the value of livestock production and agriculture.

The livestock show and auction is sponsored by the Tooele County Commissioners.

4. All exhibitors must be in the third grade, but not less than 8 years of age as of January 1 of the current year, and must be a legal resident of Tooele County unless (in the case of divorced parents) they live with one parent outside the County for school but live with the other parent in the County during the summer and take care of their own stock-show animals. Exhibitors can only show through the same season as their high school graduation but not past their 19th birthday. Exception: Disabled persons as defined by Public Law 98-527. In these special cases, all other rules apply.
5. Group Affiliation: An exhibitor may enter this show only as a 4-H or FFA member but not both. Exhibitors must declare one or the other at time of entry and will participate in the ENTIRE event in that group affiliation. This will be monitored by a members of the committee and offenders will be sifted.
6. Ownership of animals: The exhibitor will own, feed, and care for his/her project animal(s) for not less than 100 consecutive days for market steers and 60 days for market swine and market lambs immediately prior to the show in which they intend to participate. No interruption of ownership can occur. All exhibitors must have viable proof of ownership available showing the length of time they have owned the animal. The official ownership date is the date shown on the bill of sale, unless the animal was bred by the exhibitor, in which case calving or birth records must be shown. The livestock project animals must be located in the same county as the exhibitor during the required ownership period. Unless the individual qualifies under rule 4.
7. Fitting on show grounds: The fitting of animals will take place in areas designated by the Livestock Show Committee. Parents, guardians, siblings, club leaders, Extension/4-H agents, and FFA Advisors may assist, and are encouraged to assist the younger exhibitors. However, each exhibitor must be working with the project animal and be in attendance with that animal during the entire fitting process or face forfeiture of prize money.
8. Treating an animal internally or external with an irritant, counter-irritant, or other substance used to artificially change the conformation or appearance of an animal for show is considered unethical, inhumane, and is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of graphite, powders, hemp, artificial hair, coloring, common products such as fly spray, ointment, or liniment used to the point that it is irritating, or similar type products. The use of dyes, spray paint, or other artificial coloring which result in altering an animal's true and natural appearance and/or color is prohibited. Adding false hair or hair-like material fleece, or skin at any point, spot or area of the animal's body is illegal and will result in immediate disqualification. Any liquid or substance not considered part of an accepted and normal diet for livestock is deemed illegal and inhumane. For example, the use of alcoholic or carbonated beverages as a drench or filler, etc.

9. The use of tranquilizers, sedatives, or depressants which alter the physical or physiological state of the animal is illegal. Exceptions to this rule would be licensed, certified veterinarian's treatment for a recognized disease or injury. The drugs must be approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in meat producing animals. All exhibitors shall advise show management of any drug and/or medication administered to an animal that might be detected at the time of showing or at meat inspection. The name of the drug, its purpose, the person who administered the drug, time, and date of administration shall be presented to show management prior to the showing and sale of the animal. Failure to report this information to the show management will result in severe penalty and/or disqualification. Any use of drugs or substances not approved by the FDA is strictly prohibited. All animals entered into livestock competition shall be subject to testing for foreign substances that exceed acceptable levels established by the DFA, FSIS, USDA, or EPA. During the livestock events, in the case of animals requiring treatment, all medications shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian and the livestock show officials shall be notified.

10. Surgery, injection or insertion of foreign material under the skin and/or into the flesh of an animal to change the natural contours, confirmation, or appearance of an animal's body is illegal. This includes vegetable oil, silicon, or any other substance used to alter the shape of an animal. Acceptable practices of physical preparation which are allowed include: clipping of hair, trimming of hooves, dehorning, or removal of ancillary teats, etc. The use of inhumane fitting, showing, and/or handling practice or devices shall not be tolerated. For example, breaking of tails, striking of the animal to cause swelling or for bracing purposes, use of an electrical contrivance, muzzles, etc. is not acceptable.

11. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors, breed representatives, or show officials before, during, or after the competitive event is prohibited. This includes final decisions of the show veterinarian. Violators will be dealt with on a case by case basis by show officials.

12. At the time an animal is sold at auction the exhibitor shall be held directly responsible for animals that are rejected at a processing center due to the presence of foreign residues. The seller may be liable to the buyer for an amount equal to three times the purchase price and may also be liable for attorney's fees and civil penalties. Show management may share acceptable intelligence and evidence information with FDA or USDA. If, for any reason, any part of a meat animal carcass must be removed by the FDA or USDA inspectors, the market price will be discounted.
13. Show management reserves the right to require animal health certificates. Health inspection and diagnostic tests may be made before or after animals are on the livestock show premises for exhibitor and animal safety, or to inaugurate disease control procedures which may become necessary in emergencies as determined by animal health officials. Any violation of the "Tooele County Jr. Livestock Show Code of Ethics" will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and may result in probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future participation in organized livestock competition. Possible civil penalties may be imposed by the proper authorities based on evidence provided by the livestock show of exhibitors in violation of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic act or the animal mistreatment, neglect and abandonment laws that apply on the local, state, and national levels. Other cooperating shows will be notified of the action taken by show management which may affect the eligibility of the individual, group, or sponsoring organization for participation at other shows. The decision of the livestock show management will be final.
14. Dress Code for show and sale: 4-H - A long or short sleeve shirt which fastens down the front with a collar is mandatory. 33. Any lamb showing evidence of club lamb fungus will be quarantined immediately and after verification of infection by the show veterinarian will be sifted and removed from the show grounds immediately.

MARKET RULES

1. Drug withdrawal: It is unethical, and, in most cases, unlawful to administer drugs to livestock within 20-30 days of slaughter. Animals too unmanageable to show should be withdrawn from their class rather than be tranquilized. This situation will be monitored by the local show committee and the show veterinarian. By federal regulation, random testing will occur at slaughter, and animals will be condemned which have been given any injection or oral dosages of tranquilizers, pain killers, antibiotics, diuretics, steroids, or other foreign substances during withdrawal periods before slaughter. All sales money will be withheld in such cases. Bloat medicine and other medication with no withdrawal requirements may be permissible. Exhibitors need to be aware of potential health hazards to consumers who eat animals that have received any above-mentioned dosages. Please don't put someone's life in jeopardy.
2. Tagging: The FFA Advisor, Extension/4-H Agent or a member of their appointed committee shall tag each animal and process the proper forms. Should a tag be lost or pulled out of the animal's ear, the exhibitor will advise the committee supervisor immediately so the tag can be replaced and the appropriate paperwork can be processed.

3. Market Animal Weights: Ideal market weights as determined by the meat industry may vary somewhat from year to year but the following guidelines may help determine how your animal is progressing.

Beef: Minimum weight on day of show 1,000 pounds with no maximum weight.
Steers are estimated to gain approximately 2.7 lbs/day*

Sheep: Minimum weight on day of show 100 pounds and a maximum weight of 150 pounds.
Lambs are estimated to gain approximately .75 lbs/day*

Swine: Minimum weight on day of show is 230 pounds with a maximum weight of 300 pounds.
Pigs are estimated to gain approximately 1.7 lbs/day*

These estimates are based on animals in ideal conditions, on full feed using a balanced ration.

Exhibitors need to understand that the market system penalizes animals under and over ideal market weights through lower prices. Exhibitors whose animals are sifted may still participate in fitting and showing classes.

4. Entry Forms and Deadlines: Exhibitors are responsible for mailing their own entry form from May 15-June 15. Exhibitor must declare which animals are to be shown and submit an entry form and entry fees, including ear tag numbers. Entries may not exceed the limits for each show including one alternate animal per species. Forms must be signed by proper Extension/4-H Agents or FFA Advisor, and should only be signed for those youth enrolled in their programs.
5. Eligibility for group and family feeding programs will be verified by the Extension 4-H Agent or FFA Advisor and parents. Entry fees will not be withheld from sales checks; those fees are to be sent into the show along with all entry forms. This show may reject forms not properly or completely filled out and exhibitor may be disqualified from the show.
6. Lamb Docking Rule: Market class market lambs must be docked at the distal end of the caudal folds such that the caudal folds remain. Dock (tail) length determination will be made during the weigh-in at the show. Any lamb showing evidence of club lamb fungus will be quarantined immediately and after verification of infection by the show veterinarian will be sifted and removed from the show grounds immediately. All lambs must be properly tagged with a scrapies tag. Most breeders will have this done for individuals purchasing lambs. If not, check with Mr. Gowans or Mr. Johnson to have your lambs properly tagged.
7. All swine that cross the scale must be slaughtered in an effort to prevent PRV and other communicable diseases.
